MANDARIN CHINESE CLASSES

Mandarin Chinese classes will be scheduled from Monday to Friday, from 9am to 12pm, for a total of 15 hours per week (30 lessons in total). Each class lasts 50 minutes and is followed by a 10-minute break (see Summer Camp Program on page 7).

Classes are organized in small groups, with a maximum of 10 students per group. Participants will be divided in different groups according to their Mandarin Chinese Level. The course will focus on the oral practice of everyday situations. Students who already possess an Intermediate or Advanced Mandarin Chinese level can participate in Hutong School’s Intensive Chinese Program. Otherwise, Hutong School will organize private classes 2 hours per day (a total of 20 lessons instead of 30).

Moreover, students will be challenged to practice what they’ve learned during the sightseeing and cultural activities organized in the afternoon, aiming at applying language learning to real life.
Furthermore, the Summer Camp consists of 18 activities, including:

Sightseeing
- Tours to the Great Wall, Lama and Confucius temples, Gulou District, the Summer Palace, etc.

Cultural Activities
- Introduction to Chinese calligraphy or to Tai Chi, acrobatic shows, etc.

Recreational Activities and Lectures

ACCOMMODATION

During the whole length of the Summer Camp, students will lodge in a youth hostel based in the center of Beijing, in the heart of the hutongs of the Dōngsi District.

Participants will have a single bed in a room of up to four beds (not mixed).

The hostel is equipped with WiFi (in the lobby and bedrooms), air conditioning, a restaurant and a relaxation area, where students can rest and spend their free time.
